Council Meeting Date: January 2, 2007

Requesting Dept.: Department of Police

B. To be completed by the department:

1. Please provide a summary of the purpose of this legislation (Justification Statement).

The Atlanta Police Department annually receives Justice Department funding under the Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) program to fund improvements to the local criminal justice system. The Department of Corrections intends to continue its "Women for Women" program which was funded last year with Local Law Enforcement Grant funds. Corrections wishes to use JAG funds for year two of this program.

2. Please provide background information regarding this legislation.

Women who are committed to the City Department of Corrections with addiction problems are at greater risk to re-offend and be incarcerated again, as they are less capable of securing steady employment and making positive life choices. Continuing this program with JAG funds will allow the Department of Corrections to continue its highly effective treatment program that engages professionals to lead group sessions with female inmates with addiction issues while providing health care and educational opportunities for the women in the program. Education programs include life skills and child rearing programs. Women who complete the program do receive aftercare in the form of residential treatment programs in the community.
